RANGECRAFT MANUFACTURING AWARDED 2007 GOLD ADEX AWARD

FAIR LAWN, NEW JERSEY — With the results of the judging in, RangeCraft Manufacturing has been awarded a Gold ADEX Award for Design Excellence for its Miami Collection of Custom Range Hoods. ADEX stands for Awards for Design Excellence and are awarded annually for superior product design. ADEX is the largest and most prestigious awards competition for product design of furnishings marketed through the design trade. Design Journal, the international trade publication for interior designers, architects and facility managers, is the proud sponsor of the ADEX Awards.

RangeCraft captured the ADEX Gold Award for its Miami Range Hood Collection. One of RangeCraft's most popular range hood lines, the Miami adds distinctive design and elegance to your kitchen. Decorative Miami Hoods can be made from materials such as Copper, Brass, Stainless Steel, or any combination of these materials, or any decorative color of your choice, with Mirrored or Antiqued finishes. Miami Hoods come seamless or with Old World riveted corners, recessed bands and decorative buttons. All of RangeCraft's hoods come standard with patented "Micro" Baffle Filters and halogen lights. They are available with super quiet internal fans of 600cfm or 1200cfm, or for use with a remote fan.

"We are extremely proud to accept this award for design excellence from the design community for our Miami Range Hood Collection," states Helmut Goetz, CEO/President of RangeCraft Manufacturing. "It's an honor to be recognized for our quality product contributions to the industry. This award reinforces our commitment to offer the highest quality products for today's lifestyles."

RangeCraft Manufacturing Co. Inc., is well known to the industry for their high quality range hoods. Design excellence and superior craftsmanship separates RangeCraft from the competition.
